Ken,
You're a great guy
+ a lot of fun.
hope to see you
this summer.
Mike

Dear Kenny,

Dearest in my heart is ~~chris~~
that you'll take my on a tandem ride.
I've never been on a tandem with a "Kenny" before. You'll be a first.
I bet item number one. now to think of item number two. Now about I hope your blond hair I'll never get blonder than mine? I use lemon juice,
what's your formula
item number three have got to fun this summer, and get a nice team its very healthy looks!

Now that's best till later! although you may not think so. I'm very glad I know you. May we continue as buddies?

Best of luck and such crap!
~~Love ya~~ Can't
speed "love" right.

Love ya

P.S. Love ya

and I might see you

To Penny (Alicia)
Stay sweet and
adorable and wonderful.
You're a great kid and I won't forget it! I'll love
you always. Have a great summer,
I hope I'll see you once in a while over the summer. You'll have to come over to bake cookies, maybe this time you'll stay even longer than before. Anyway, stay wonderful. Love Sandy

"The New Generation"

The theme of Stunts '64, sponsored by the senior class, was a trip around the world. Just a "Passport, Please" was the only requirement for an evening of gaiety, fun, music, and original entertainment. Visiting England, France, Germany, Japan, and the United States, the travelers saw such diverse sights as the Beatles, a German drinking party, and the "Small House of Uncle Thomas." The show was an exceptionally well-balanced mixture of music, dancing, and creative skits, —one of the best Stunts in the history of Highland Park High School.

Disaster Area

Although most of Highland Park was immobilized from January 23 to 27, H.P.H.S. carried on "business as usual." The ice storm provided a hey-day for photographers, but it inconvenienced power company workers desperately trying to restore power to most of Highland Park

Before the storm brewed, semester finals took their toll January 20 to 22. Students eagerly awaited the opening of the doors to the test rooms, but even more impatiently for the end of testing.

The Dirty Bird

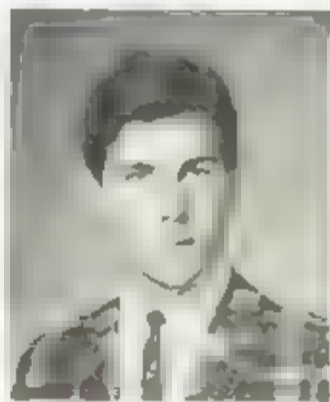

At the beginning of February, Girls' Club launched a clean-up campaign. Started last year, the project was enlarged this year. The campaign adopted a symbol, the "dirty bird," which was used in mysterious headlines in Shoreline before the campaign began, and in clean-up posters in classrooms, signs in the washrooms, displays in the showcases, murals in the cafeterias, and gum bags by the drinking fountains all features of the campaign.

You will dine well, our friends, with us
 If the gods look kindly on you,
 If you bring with you good money,
 Not without a beautiful girl
 And wine and laughter.
 If you bring these, our guests, you will eat well;
 For the purse of your seniors is full of cobwebs.
 We will supply perfume, which Venus and Cupid gave us,
 And, when you smell them, you will ask the gods
 To make you all nose

Vaud-ers and Daughters

Returning to the early 1900's, the troupers of HGA and their fathers attended the annual Father-Daughter Banquet February 25, this year entitled "Vaud-ers and Daughters." The meal, served by senior members of Varsity Club, was followed by the class song contest, which, in keeping with tradition, was won by the senior girls.

DISTRICT SPEECH CONTESTANTS

H.P.H.S. took first place in the Illinois High School Speech Contest this year. At the district contest, held February 13, Mary Michell and Mark Lavin won first place, in prose reading and after-dinner speaking respectively. Adrienne Fishman placed third in comedy reading, Jeff Gusfield in original monologue, and Dan Gruber in extemporaneous speaking. All of these students went on to win the sectional meet. In April, Mary Michell won a first and Mark Lavin a fourth at the state meet

Paul Grossman and Dan Gruber. Rebuttal. Absent: Jim Ohlf and Mike Rosenfield

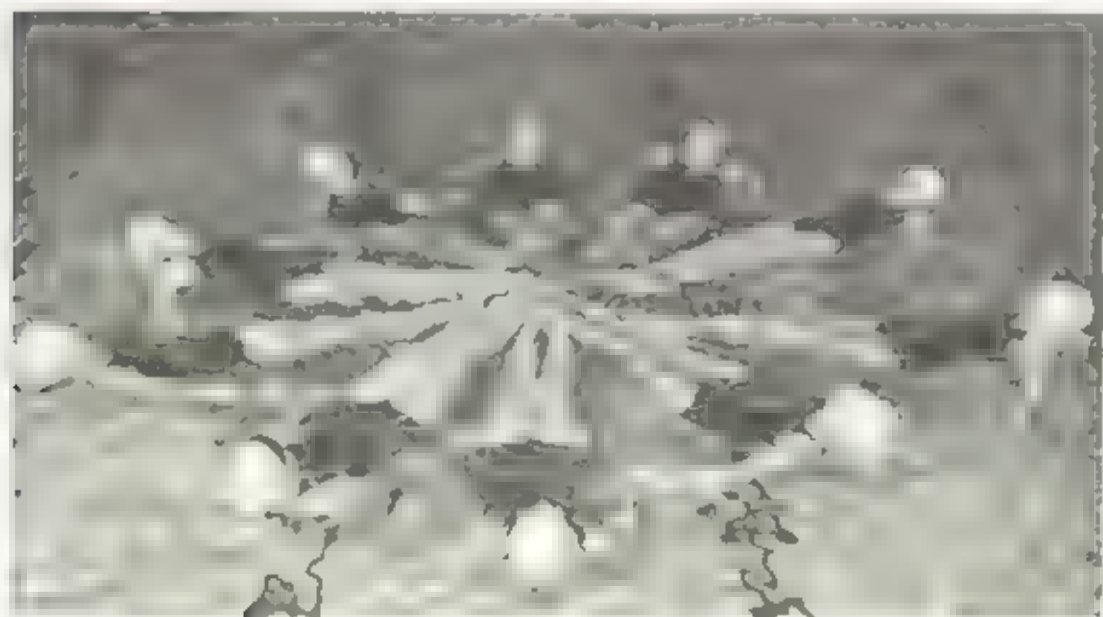

Debaters Paul Grossman, Dan Gruber, Jim Ohlf, and Mike Rosenfield appeared twice on Rebuttal on WBBM-TV. On November 21 they defeated Homewood-Flossmoor, as they supported the affirmative side of the question: Resolved that the election of the President should be by direct popular vote. They took the affirmative again on March 13, defeating Aurora East on the question of raising the driving age to eighteen.

The Windy City

The 1965 Penguin Swim Show, held May 7 and 8, was the culmination of months of hard work. Starting in October, the girls loyally sacrificed their hair during the weekly practices. By March, a Chicago theme had been chosen, ballets had been written and nightly practices had begun in the boys' pool. The success of this year's show was largely due to the encouragement of the sponsors, Miss Steinbach and Miss Nelson, and to the support of the club heads, Linda Manahan and Ellen Bernstein.

Foreign Exchange

A touch of France and Norway was brought to H.P.H.S. this year by our two foreign exchange students. Through student support of Snack Bar, Daniele Esteve from Marseilles, France, and Jan Fuglesang from Voss, Norway, were able to stay in Highland Park homes and share this year with us. Jan with his big lunches and big grin, and Daniele with her poise and demure smile found time to add warmth and friendship to our school.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club is interested in all phases of study, from archeology to space technology. Their regular meetings are supplemented by guest speakers and movies. The Science Club officers were John Ropiequet, president and Dick DuBroff, vice-president

MATH CLUB

Through movies, lectures, and discussions the members of Math Club probed fourth dimension, topology, and other aspects of mathematics. This supplement to classroom work provided an interesting and enriching program for each potential mathematician. The Math Club officers were Don Mintz, secretary-treasurer; and Jon Siegel, president.

NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE

Early each Saturday morning, armed with notecards, the members of the debate club challenged a rival school in day-long debates. In November, Jim Oliff, Mike Rosenfield, Paul Grossman, and Dan Gruber appeared on "Rebuttal." After spending hours in the library doing preparatory research, the squad earned well-deserved credit among Chicagoland teams. Officers were James Oliff, president; Michael Rosenfield, vice president; and Paul Grossman, secretary.

CHESS CLUB

The twenty-seven members of chess club met once a week throughout the year to engage in the mind-taxing game of chess. As they played, they developed a spirit of competition and knowledge of the game which prepared them for the inter-school meets with high schools in and out of the Suburban League. Standing were Mr. Garrigan, sponsor, Jeff Harris, Ron Burry, Lee Liss, Ken Spector, John Perbohner. Seated were Richard Baim, Ben Morgan, Brian Gerber, Randy Goulding, and Terry Crawford.

BRIDGE CLUB

Charles Goren's they're not, but they're no dummies. Bridge club members learned how to jump bid, how much to risk when vulnerable, and the fine points of leading, finessing, pre-empting, ruffing and sluffing for tournament play. Bridge club officers were Jim Nachman, tournament director; Sue Gidwitz, secretary-treasurer; Jim Kahnweiler, president; Robby Sternberg, vice-president.

CREATIVE ARTS CLUB

Despite minor obstacles ("Where's the ink?" "Does clay come out?" "I just had this shirt cleaned!"), creative arts club actively promoted artistic interest in the school. Its forty members heard famous local artists lecture, directed publicity for various school service projects, and developed individual projects in ceramics. Officers were Ellen Bass, secretary; Heidi Packer, treasurer; Judy Klein, publicity chairman, Margaret Lowinger, president; and Carol Nissenson, vice-president.

LITERARY CLUB

Literary club's creative endeavors were promoted by joint meetings with Garrick club to see and discuss plays, and by guest speakers, such as Helen Tann Aschmann, writer and teacher. At bi-monthly meetings members discussed student writing and in the spring published a literary magazine. Pictured were Mrs. Rodbro, sponsor; Marjorie Joseph, president; Paul Eisner, secretary; Ellen Bass, vice-president.

LIBRARY CLUB

The library club assisted in lending books, sending out overdue slips, and re-shelving returned books. Officers were Sue Kreiter, secretary; Barbara Berman, treasurer; Elvio Vido, president; Mark Fosbender, vice-president; Guy Gibson, credentials officer.

Giants Share

The 1964 Little Giant football team, for the first time in our school's history, took the Suburban League championship, in a tie with Evanston. Playing superbly all year, the Giants finished with a 7 and 1 record. The season provided many thrilling moments that will be remembered for a long time. Who can forget Emmerich's field goal against Evanston, the four touchdowns against New Trier's vaunted defense, the amazing second half comeback at Waukegan, or the tremendous defensive battle at Oak Park? With the two touchdowns in the last three minutes of the Morton game, the championship was ours and the goal posts were down. At the special celebration assembly, the exultant student body honored the champs. Outstanding performers were Scott Williams, quarterback; Dick Emmerich and John Mauck, backs; Steve Glickauf and Peter Kroll, ends, Terry Sedik and Dave Joseph, linemen; and John Harris, center. The crowd would not stop cheering for the coaches John Chickerneo, Jay Sanders, Dan Wisniewski, and Cal Spears.

This year's varsity Cross Country team had its ups and downs. Showing improvement over last year's team, the runners clinched third place out of sixteen in Lake County, fifth place in Suburban, and eleventh out of twenty in district. Bill Rose stood out in the Lake County meet by placing sixth out of over one hundred runners. Other fine performers included Loren Siegel, Jack Castle, Dick Benassi, and John Bradshaw. Credit goes to managers Bud Bolton, varsity, and Tom Spitz, frosh-soph, and to coaches Dick Ault and Melvin Edwards. This year's soph leaders, Charlie Cochran, John Hinde, and Bob Barancik, will strengthen next year's varsity squad as juniors. By next year, too, the team will have become conditioned to running their new, higher and rougher course in Sunset Park.

Basketball

Coach Fred Dickman's varsity cagers had a most erratic and exciting season. The season started out with losses to Glenbrook North and North Chicago, with the damaging loss of the last year's playmaking guard Dennis Rafferty for the entire season with an eye injury. After crushing Warren, the Parkers were pitted against their highly ranked chief rival New Trier, in their first suburban league encounter. After trailing 17-2 in the first quarter, the Giants put on an outstanding performance, led by Fred Lind and Jerrold Carl, and defeated the Indians by two points in a real thriller. It was a triumph for the team, a thrill to the delirious Highland Park fans, and of great personal satisfaction to coach Fred Dickman, for it was his team's first victory over New Trier in his five-year tenure at Highland Park.

In the next 11 games the Giants had rough go of it, losing seven and winning four. As they traveled to Morton on February 12, their suburban league record was 4-6 and they were facing a fast and hot-shooting Mustang squad which held second place in the league standings and was highly ranked in the state. The game moved quickly and, as expected, Morton took a 27-21 lead over Highland Park. But then the tables turned, and the Little Giants, led by Fred Lind, Steve Glickauf, and Tom Gmeiner, outscored the Mustangs 30-9 in the second quarter to take a commanding 51-36 halftime lead. Morton gamely fought back to win four points late in the third quarter, but with Joel Koransky and Dick Wolk spearheading the offense and our tightening of the 1-2-3 defense, the Giants pulled away to a crushing 21 point victory 90-69.

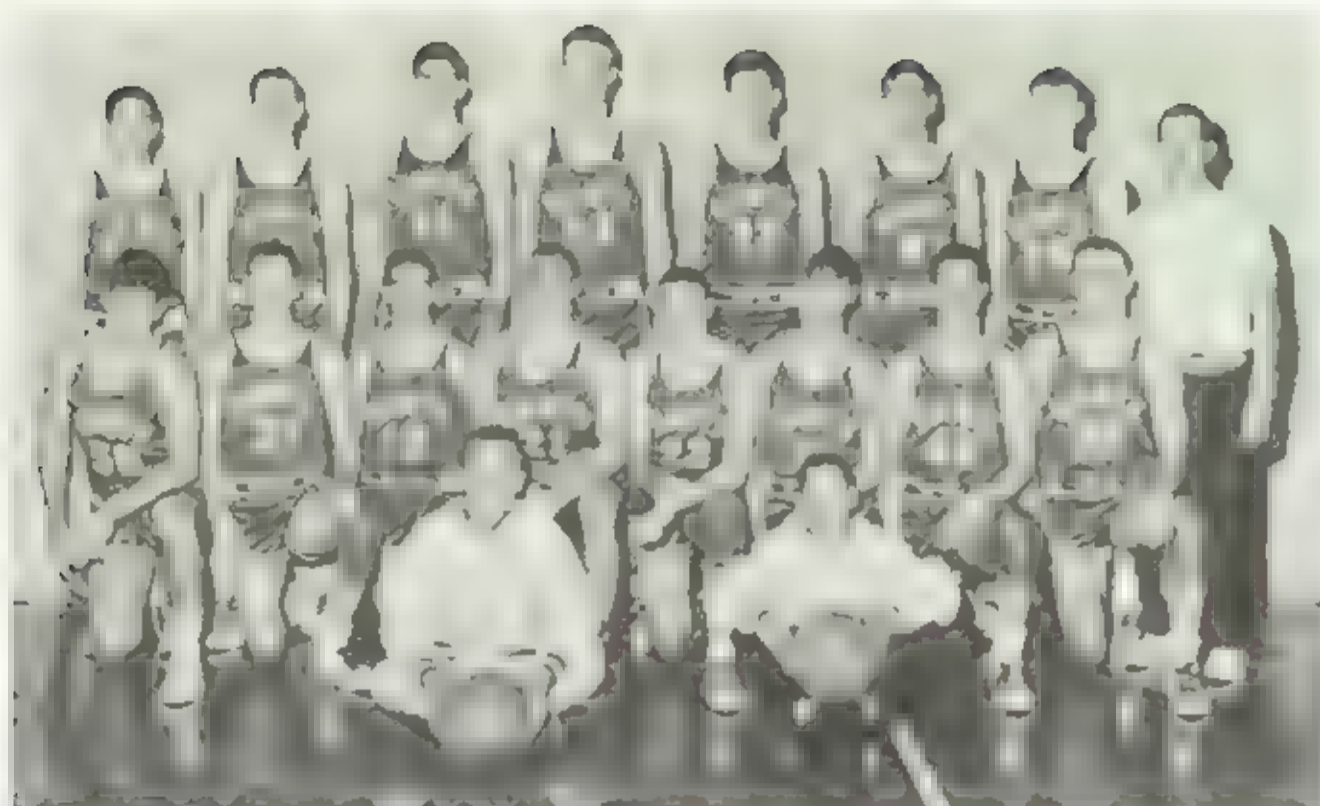

Highland Park finished its season with a significant improvement over the beginning. H.P. swamped Evanston with Fred Lind playing outstanding ball scoring 46 points and thereby breaking his own Suburban League scoring record with 403 points for the season. In the regionals the Giants fared well. They smashed Libertyville and then in a fantastic game beat the Lake Forest Scouts who had beaten the Giants badly earlier in the year. This game was the highlight of the Giant Season for in the second and third quarters the Giants, led by Steve Glickauf, played terrific ball which completely destroyed a fine Lake Forest team.

Individually, the season brought many outstanding performances. Fred Lind, the Giants' 6'7" center, won the Suburban League scoring title handily for his second consecutive year. Seniors Steve Glickauf, Steve Zacharias, John Newman, and Dave Anderson contributed outstanding performances. Juniors Tom Gmeiner, Dick Wolk, Joel Koransky, and Jerrold Carl will form a veteran nucleus for next year's squad. With these lettermen, plus a talented sophomore squad, next year's cage season promises to be most exciting.

Wrestling

The 1965 season was a hard-fought, but rather unsuccessful season for the Highland Park wrestling team. The only victory was against Wauconda in the second meet of the season. Despite the poor team record, the team was not without individual stars. Seniors John Mauck (165 lbs.), Scott Schoen (180 lbs.), and Marc "Buzzy" Rubenstein (127 lbs.) were the outstanding wrestlers in the 1965 season. Mauck and Schoen qualified for the district wrestling tournament. Next year, with the loss of many fine varsity wrestlers, promises to be another difficult one for the wrestling team

After losing 13 seniors, the outlook for the 1964-65 swim team was not bright, but hard work, especially on the part of coaches Davis and Harris, produced quite a surprise. Both varsity and soph teams completed the season with fine 8-3 records. Outstanding varsity performances won first in the Soph-Junior Invitational and second in the Panther Relays. Seniors Pete Levy, who broke the school breast stroke record, Bob Baizer, Bill Snow, and John Shimizu, and juniors Van Corwith and Bob Thomson were bright spots on the varsity team as were Dave Knapp and Jay Ziv on the sophomore level. Perhaps the greatest surprise was the freshman squad (7-2) which broke records out of 11 events. Record breakers included Bruce Stutzman, Chip Mills, Ralph Rothfelder, and Chuck Sarkady. The varsity and freshman squads finished third in the Suburban League with the soph squad fourth.

BACK ROW Tom Sultan, Steve Abrahams, Jim Terman, Dave Andres, Bud Bolton, Mike Mack, Jim Barry, Coach Edwards. THIRD ROW Marc Birnbaum, Dick Wolk, Pete Glick, Jose Garcia, Jim Bixby, Dave Brent, Randy Gorchoff. SECOND ROW Coach Scornavacca, Steve Ettlinger, Kirby Jones, Steve Weinberg, Bob Powell, John Curtis, Ben Morgan, Coach Leppert. FRONT ROW Bob Kenner, Bill Rose, Jan Fuglesang, Louie Boilini, Mike Omolecki, Loren Siegal, Bob Roberts.

Although hurt by many early season injuries, the 1965 track team managed to have a successful year. Paced by many outstanding performers, such as Bob Roberts, Louie Boilini, Jack Castle, and Pete Glick, the Giants at times reminded their supporters of the great 1961 team. With many fine juniors and sophomores in training, the 1966 team should be a good one.

Everyone so willing to work the editor could only sharpen pencils!

Mona, Alice, Robbie — discover, design, direct

Jon and Richard — irreplaceable.

Bonnie and Mike — "Black Ink Accounting"

Darlene — See the cover. Need we say more?

Too many seniors deserving credit — now see the inside flaps.

Eager juniors — willing to handle the "dirty work."

Walinger Studios — no double exposures.

Edwards Brothers and Mr. Reisig — helpful and encouraging

Particularly, Miss Palmer and Dr. Munski — tireless, fearless, "panicless."

A unique cover; a creative challenge: Little Giant '65

Sara

Kenny, we've really had fun this year and I hope you'll in my Latin class next year. Your experience with Robbie was fun for me 'cuz I got to know ya better. Hope to see ya
 this summer. Love ya
